

Kaleidoscope Festival

at Storyhouse, Chester

What is Kaleidoscope?

Kaleidoscope is the name of the events and festival for learning disabled and neurodivergent people that take place at Storyhouse in Chester. These events are all made together for, and made by, people with a learning disability or neurodivergent person.

When is the Kaleidoscope Festival?

It starts on Monday 10 July

It ends on Friday 14 July

What's on during the festival?

Monday
10 July

Disability Pride Parade at Grosvenor Park

An annual parade through town finishing at Grosvenor Park

11am-2.30pm

FREE

Meet at Chester Town Hall at 10.30am

Tuesday
11 July

PRE
BOOK

Laughter Yoga

10.30am-11am and

11.30-12noon

£5

Garret Theatre

Theatre: Birdie

Presented by Mind the Gap: England's leading learning disability performance company

1pm

FREE

Outside new market

PRE
BOOK

Sing Along Show Tunes

6pm

FREE

Cinema

Wednesday 12 July

Kaleidoscope Makers Market

A Market for you to sell and buy items

11am-2pm

FREE

The Kitchen

RAWD Birkenhead presents How to Fall in Love, Part 2

1pm-2pm

£5

Garret Theatre

Kaleidoscope's Got Talent

6pm-8pm

£5

Garret Theatre

Thursday 13 July

Dance Performance and Workshop

11-12noon

FREE

Garret Theatre

Painting to Music

11am-12noon, 1-2pm

and 2.30-3.30pm

£5

Garret Bar and Theatre

Minifest with live music by Artful Playground

6-8pm

£5

Garret Theatre

Friday 14 July

Kaleidoscope Social

Come and meet some new friend and have a cup of tea

11am-12noon

FREE

The Kitchen

Kaleidoscope Company Presents: Finding Joy!

1pm & 6.30pm

£5

Garret Theatre

How to book

Individual events during the Kaleidoscope Festival are either FREE or cost £5 for participants, with carers or support staff going free.

Find out more at storyhouse.com