

Kaleidoscope Festival at Storyhouse, Chester

What is Kaleidoscope?

Kaleidoscope is the name of all of the events and festivals that take place at Storyhouse in Chester. These events are all made together for, and made by, people with a learning disability.

When is the Kaleidoscope Festival?

It starts on Monday 8 July. It ends on Friday 12 July.

Monday 9 July:

Disability Pride Parade in Chester City Centre – led by brass band ‘Back Chat Brass’ – Back by Popular demand!

10.30am – 12pm / Free

DanceSyndrome Presents: SENse

A professional dance company from Lancashire. Some of DanceSyndrome’s performers have learning disabilities.

1.30pm – 2.30pm / £5

Patchwork Choir Performance

4pm – 5pm / Free

Tuesday 9 July:

Try it Out + Dance Workshop

Two events all about moving your body, trying a new sport, sharing a game or taking part in a dance workshop.

10.30am – 12noon / Free

Inspirers Panel – Listen to a panel of inspiring and successful sports people.

1.30pm – 2.30pm / Free

Dance Performance – Watch professional dance artist Ben perform his incredible dance performance titled The Superpower of Personalities.

6pm – 7pm / Free

Kaleidoscope Festival at Storyhouse, Chester

Wednesday 10 July:

Fashion Show

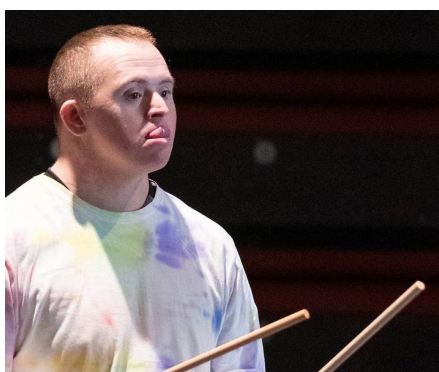

10.30am – 12.30pm / Free

Fashion & Sustainability Workshops

1.30pm – 3.30pm / Free

Champions (12A)

Watch a film in the beautiful Storyhouse Cinema
6pm / Tickets from £5 – £9.90

Thursday 11 July:

Songwriting & Drumming Workshops

10.30am – 12pm / Free

Singing Workshop

1.30pm – 2.30pm / Free

Friday 12 July

Market + Workshops

10.30am – 12pm / Free

Finale! Celebrate the final day of the festival with a party!

1pm – 2.30pm / Free

Please book so we know to expect you.

You can find out more and book tickets by phone,
email or the website.

01244 409 113

hello@storyhouse.com

www.storyhouse.com/kaleidoscope

Essential Companions for free.

STORYHOUSE