

Storyhouse Youth Theatre (5-13s) presents:

Wind in the Willows

by Glyn Maxwell

YS Young
Storyhouse

SATURDAY 13TH & SUNDAY 14TH JULY

DIRECTED BY CLAIRE BEERJERAZ & LOTTIE LAZENBY

Adapted from the classic tale by Kenneth Grahame, witness all your beloved characters like Mole, Ratty, Badger and of course the famous Toad on adventures around the Wild Wood. From wholesome picnics to grand theft auto, row boats to prison cells..this show has it all!

WELCOME FROM THE DIRECTORS

“We are so proud to be presenting this production of Wind in the Willows with our amazing youth theatre groups. All year, our young people have been developing their fantastic performance skills and knowledge to prepare for our final showcase of the term. They have placed an enormous amount of time, learning lines, choreography, developing their characters and placing their visual influences into our set and costume, so we hope you truly enjoy their performances and experience the joy shared by them on stage.”

YOUTH THEATRE

Storyhouse Youth Theatre is a year-long, fun, creative programme for young people aged 5-17. Through weekly sessions, young people will learn performance skills, play games and make theatre in a supportive and safe environment. At the end of their year with us, Youth Theatre members put all they have learnt into practice in a show on the Storyhouse stage. If you are interested in Youth Theatre or might know someone who is, membership for a September start will be live on the website over the summer.

Drop us a line on youththeatre@storyhouse.com to be added to our mailing list.
